Warwickshire County records may be claimed at any tournament that has been granted World or UK record status.

This form duly completed, together with the official results sheet showing: Name, venue, record status, score, round shot and date, should be sent to the County Records Officer, to be ratified at the next available CWAA Committee Meeting (these Meetings take place in January, April, July and October each year).

No claim will be considered for ratification if received later than ONE calendar month after the round was shot.

Claims will be processed in the order received, and if your claim has already been beaten, then it will be disallowed.

For Record Officers Use Only

Please send all claims to:
